Biographical/Historical Note

Keith Morton Read (1880-1940) was born in Covington, Kentucky, on June 26, 1880. The son of Edmond Strudwick Read and Mary Sturtivant, he graduated from Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia and was a member of the Chi Phi fraternity. In 1908, Read married Mary Virginia Rice in the city of Dallas, Texas. They had two daughters, Alice Read Heard and Virginia Heard. Read moved to Savannah in 1910, where he successfully worked in the fertilizer business until his retirement in 1937. Predeceased by his wife, Read died May 26, 1940, after a short illness.

Scope and Content Note

This collection is divided into 9 series: Gourdin-Young papers, 1827-1915; Records of the U.S. Collector of Customs, Savannah, Ga., 1799-1917; British Consulate at Savannah papers, 1821-1895; Robert R. Henry papers, 1830-1846; Mackay papers, 1801-1876; Mann-Pray-Sleigh-Hines papers, 1803-1848; Pinckney papers, 1770-1881; Jacob Read papers, 1775-1811; General collections, 1775-1918, undated. It consists of manuscripts, correspondence, legal and research documents, land records, photographs, and other materials collected by Keith Read. Most materials relate to the social and political histories of Georgia, North Carolina, and South Carolina, focusing on land records and legal records. The collection also includes 24 microfilm rolls: 20 from the Records of the U.S. Collector of Customs series, the other 4 from the Gourdin-Young papers.

Container List

Series 1: Gourdin-Young papers, 1827-1915

This series contains a collection of family and business papers of Henry Gourdin (1804-1879), Robert Newman Gourdin (1812-1894), Peter Gourdin (1814- ), Louis Isaac Gourdin (1809-1832), William Doughty Gourdin (1801- ), and Rebecca Ann (called Anna) Gourdin Young (1805- ), children of Samuel and Mary (Doughty) Gourdin of Charleston, S.C.; also their nephew, Dr. Samuel Gourdin, and various relatives and friends. Many persons of prominence in Charleston and South Carolina are represented in the papers.

Anna R. Gourdin married the Rev. Thomas John Young (d.1852), son of William Price and Dinah Young of Colleton District, S.C. Among their children were Henry Edward Young, a lawyer of Charleston; Louis Gourdin Young, who was associated with his uncles in business; William Gourdin Young and Charlotte Dinah (Young) Lawrence. All of the persons named above are included in the correspondence.

Henry Gourdin was the senior partner of Gourdin, Matthiessen & Co., a firm of factors in Charleston. Robert N. Gourdin, a lawyer, was also a partner. Frederick C. Matthiessen was the other partner. After the death of Mr. Matthiessen, the firm was Gourdins, Young and Frost (Henry W. Frost). Louis Gourdin Young (d. circa 1922) was an associate, first in Charleston, then in Savannah, where the first was known as Gourdin & Young. After the death of Robert N. Gourdin, Young was an independent cotton exporter and Marine Agent in Savannah. In 1867 he married Mary S. Waller (d. circa 1915) of Lynchburg, Va. For many years she was principal of the Oglethorpe Seminary in Savannah.

The papers are arranged as follows: Gourdin-Young family correspondence; memorabilia and genealogies; and personal and business records. The Matthiessen correspondence is in this last group. Some of the letters are typed copies. These are Keith Read's retained copies of the papers he sold to the Library of Emory University. The originals of them are in that library.

Waring Russell papers, 1873-1908

Waring Russell (1827-1914) was born in Savannah. Before the Civil War he served as a police lieutenant, clerk of the city market, and county jailer. He was removed from the office of county jailer by the city council because he challenged Judge John M. Millen of the city court to a duel. He appealed his case to state court and was reinstated in his job. During the Civil War Russell was appointed chief of detectives by Jefferson Davis. After the war he served as deputy U.S. Marshall, jailer of Chatham County, county treasurer, and was for a time inspector of customs at the port. During the elections of 1870 Russell put into effect a plan which split the Republican vote, enabling the Democrats to win. He was instrumental in having the first drainage system put in the city during the yellow fever epidemic of 1876. He was a member of the state constitutional convention of 1877. Included are 12 items, most dealing with local political and government matters. Correspondents, in addition to Waring Russell include: William Orr, A.L. Alexander, J. Mendel, Herman Myers, A.N.
