Windy's Play Skool was a day nursery that began operation in 1971. Located at 429 Tattnall Street, it was a part of the Outreach Program of the Greenbriar Children's Center, Inc.

Scope and Content Note

This scrapbook contains photographs of the children staying at Windy's Play Skool. In addition to the photos there are short captions that describe daily activities like nap time, play time, and meetings with the social worker. Additionally the scrapbook contains poems and a letter. The school is referred to as "Wendy's" Play Skool in the scrapbook, however this appears to be a misspelling.
