Biographical/Historical Note

The International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons began on January 13, 1886 in New York City. Its purpose is the development of spiritual life and the stimulation of Christian activities. In 1887, men and boys were allowed into the order; its name changed with the addition of "Sons" in 1891. Margaret Bottome was the order's first president, serving until her death in 1906. Mary Lowe Dickinson was the General Secretary of the order until her death in 1914. The Georgia Branch did charity work with the incurably ill.

Scope and Content Note
