Biographical/Historical Note

The United States Congress provided for those soldiers who served with the Continental Army during the Revolutionary War and who applied to the Revolutionary War Pension. Those soldiers who were denied could then apply under another Revolutionary War pension act. If the pension was approved but the veteran died before the pension amount allotted him expired, his spouse or his children could apply for the remaining benefits based on his military service (from Suzanne Gould, A Monroe Freeman. Final Revolutionary War pension payment vouchers: Georgia).

Scope and Content Note

This collection consists of a microfilmed copy of the payment vouchers for Revolutionary War pensioners. The vouchers are arranged in alphabetical order by the name of the pensioner (or their spouse or child). Most records include the name of the pensioner; the name of the spouse; pensioner's county of residence; previous county or counties of residence in Georgia or another state; military service of the veteran, including rank and organization information; Congressional pension act that covers the claim; monetary provisions of the pension; final pension payment amount; date that the last pension payment was made; and miscellaneous information such as the name of the attorney or executor handling the filing of the claim. Some vouchers also include information concerning the names of children and death dates for the veteran. Some vouchers were awarded for service in the War of 1812 and the Mexican War.
