Biographical/Historical Note

The National Society of the Colonial Dames of America (NSCDA) was founded in 1891 and is composed of women who are descended from an ancestor who resided in an American Colony before 1750 and whose services were rendered during the Colonial Period. The NSCDA actively promotes the heritage of the United States through historic preservation, patriotic service, and educational projects and is made up of 44 Corporate Societies with over 15,000 members. The NSCDA in the State of Georgia headquarters is located at the Andrew Low House at 329 Abercorn Street in Savannah, Georgia.
